

PAST EVENTS

2009

■ January 21, 2009

Arts and Community Forum, "Gil Garcetti: 2nd Act" (70 attendees)

SM Public Library Martin Luther King Auditorium

Mr. Gil Garcetti, Photographer shared his insights on how he discovered his 2nd Career through photographic artistry.

■ February – April, 2009

Lloyd Cameron, Painter Exhibition

Presented at the SAF.

Lloyd Cameron is an abstract painter and art teacher who never had a solo exhibit before. The SAF brought his exhibit to show his retrospective works.

■ February 28, 2009

Artist Talk with Lloyd Cameron

■ April 23, 2009

Arts and Community Forum, "Discovering Your Talent in Music" (80 attendees)

SM Public Library Martin Luther King Auditorium

Panelists: Don Paris, Broadway Music Singer; Annie Gross, Classical Music Singer, Eli Shirim Lester, Song Writer; Jeong Woo Jin, Conductor

Retirement can be an opportunity to pursue new dreams or capture old ones. This Forum presented how to bring joy and excitement into the 2nd chapter of your life.

■ May 1 – July 31, 2009

Three Intergenerational Women Artists Exhibit: Soon Kim, Ah-Young Kim & Li 'n Lee

Three Women artists in the family, Soon Kim, grandmother, Ah-Young Kim, daughter and Li 'n Lee, granddaughter presented their intergenerational artistic expressions through their works. This exhibit was curated by Myung Deering, daughter.

■ June 13, 2009

Artist Talk with Li 'n Lee on Three Intergenerational Women Artists

■ June 25, 2009

Arts and Community Forum, "Discovering Your Talent in Storytelling"

SM Public Library Martin Luther King Auditorium

Moderator: Doug Kaback, Ca. State Univ. Northridge Faculty

Panelists: John Achorn, Emeritus College, SMC Faculty; Karin Gutman, Storyteller; Terrie Silverman, Writer & Storyteller

This Forum introduced how to craft life stories that could lead to discovering, connecting, and sharing each other's memories, experiences and family histories.

■ October 3, 2009

2nd Annual Senior and Family Intergenerational Arts Festival

The Festival, "Celebration of Life," with the collaboration of City of Santa Monica and many non-profit agencies in the community presented many arts activities such as arts demonstrations, arts workshops, performances, and exhibits from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm at the Santa Monica Senior Center. Participants in the drum-making workshop led the drum-performances to the end, which concluded the Festival with fun and excitement. Over 300 people and 70 volunteers participated in the Festival.